June 16, 2010

Greetings:

On behalf of the Host Convention Chapters and the Board of Directors of our great association, we would like to welcome you back home to our 2010 Convention. We have planned this convention with you in mind to ensure that your convention experience is both enjoyable as well as educational.

The theme of our 2010 Convention is "Our Dear Alma Mater, Grambling State University." Therefore, please register and come rededicate yourself as an active alum working towards the betterment of our great institution. Plan to attend the scheduled events starting with the Reception on Thursday, July 22nd at 8:00 p.m. in the Atrium of the Favrot Student Union.

Sign-up and attend the educational and informative sessions on Admissions and Recruitment, Financial Aid, Institution Advancement, and Retention. Enjoy an afternoon at the only museum dedicated to an African American coach, the Eddie G. Robinson Museum. Each of the speakers are waiting and eager to share with us pertinent information. Moreover, do not end your 2010 convention experience without accepting the warm invitation extended by the New Rocky Valley Baptist Church family to come fellowship on Sunday morning.

Please remember, each chapter is kindly requested to make a $1,000.00 donation, which the cumulative amount will be presented to Grambling State University at the Black & Gold Banquet on Saturday night at the convention.

Again, welcome!

In the Spirit of GSU,
